The Amwell Olympics

Go Team!

The Amwell recently hosted its very first Olympics, creating a day filled with excitement and camaraderie for residents, families and friends. The activities staff transformed the home into a mini Olympic village, setting up areas for residents to compete in various sports. The day began with a vibrant opening ceremony, showcasing residents' skills and determination in each event, and concluded with a medal ceremony.

The event provided residents with the opportunity to experience a variety of activities, fostering social interaction, teamwork, mental stimulation and personal fulfillment. Overall, The Amwell's Olympics was a celebration of togetherness and the joy of active living!

Trevor Santino's Lively Performance

Toes Tapping

The Amwell was thrilled to welcome singer Trevor Santino for an exciting and entertaining performance. Residents actively participated in the vibrant celebration of music, playing instruments, tambourines and maracas. They enthusiastically sang along and danced to the energetic tunes, creating a joyful atmosphere filled with high spirits. The event provided a memorable and uplifting experience for all who attended.

Creative Mixology

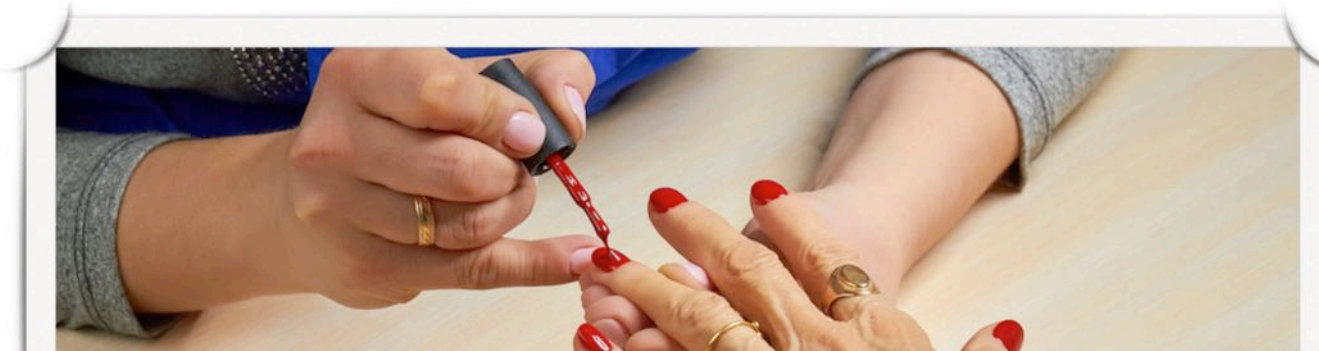

Creative Creations

The recent drinks mixology session at The Amwell offered residents the opportunity to craft their own cocktails and mocktails. The event featured a variety of vibrant beverages, including refreshing strawberry daiquiris, crisp dry gin and eye-catching purple rain drinks. Using food colouring, fresh fruit and whimsical candy floss, residents enjoyed experimenting with flavours and presentations, creating visually stunning and delicious drinks.

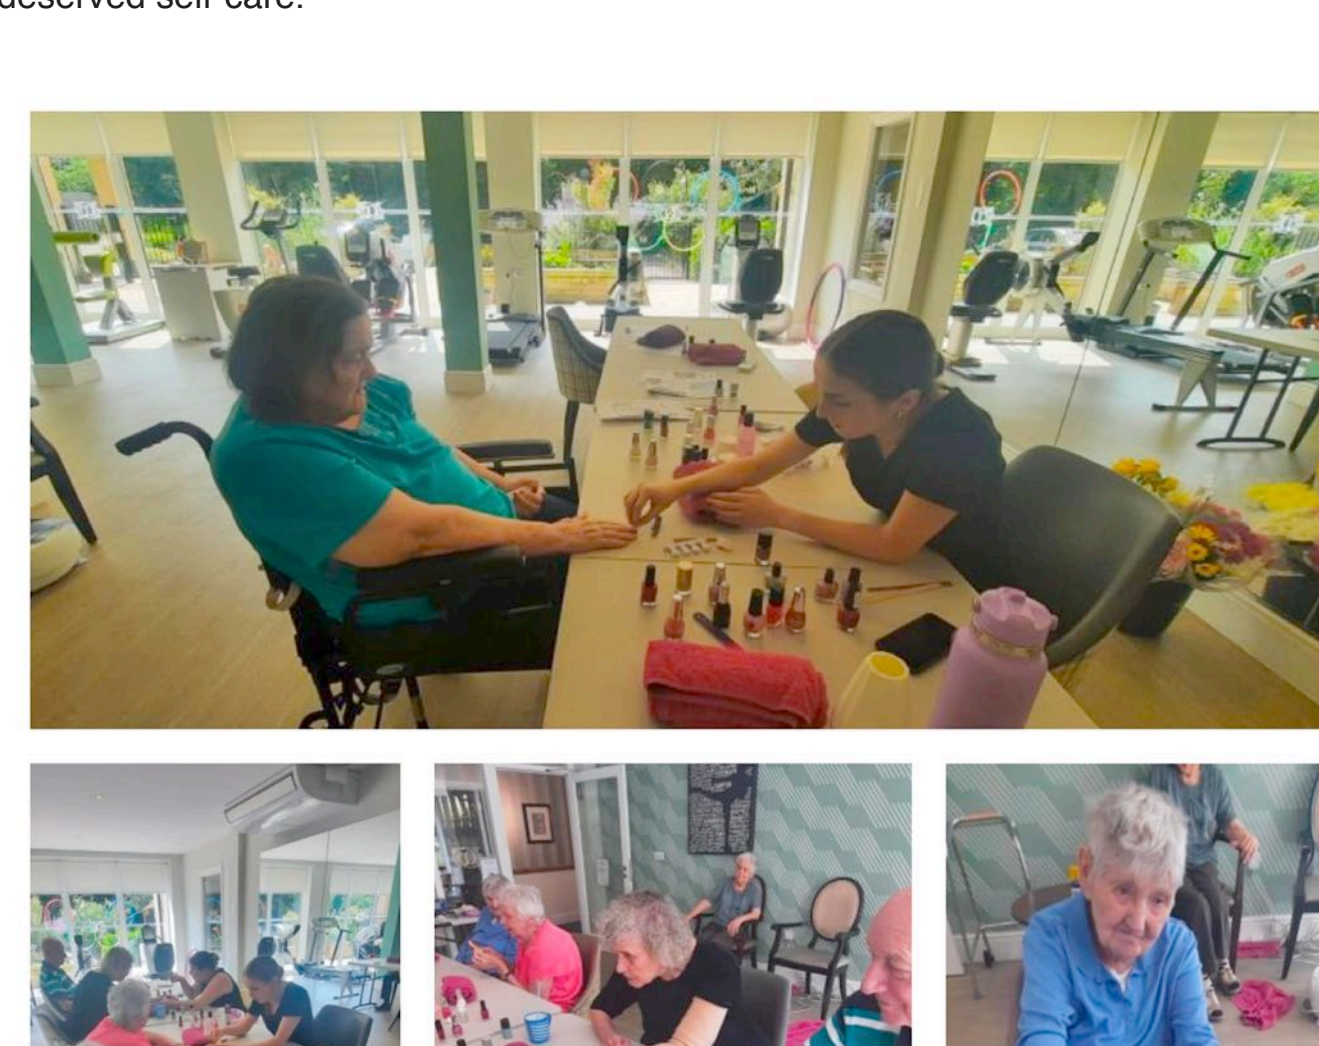

Relaxing Pamper Session

Relax & Rejuvenate

The Amwell recently hosted a delightful pamper session, providing a relaxing and indulgent experience for our residents. From nail painting to foot spas and massages, residents enjoyed the opportunity to unwind and be pampered in a tranquil and supportive environment. Each service was designed to offer comfort and relaxation, providing a rejuvenating break for residents to enjoy some well-deserved self-care.

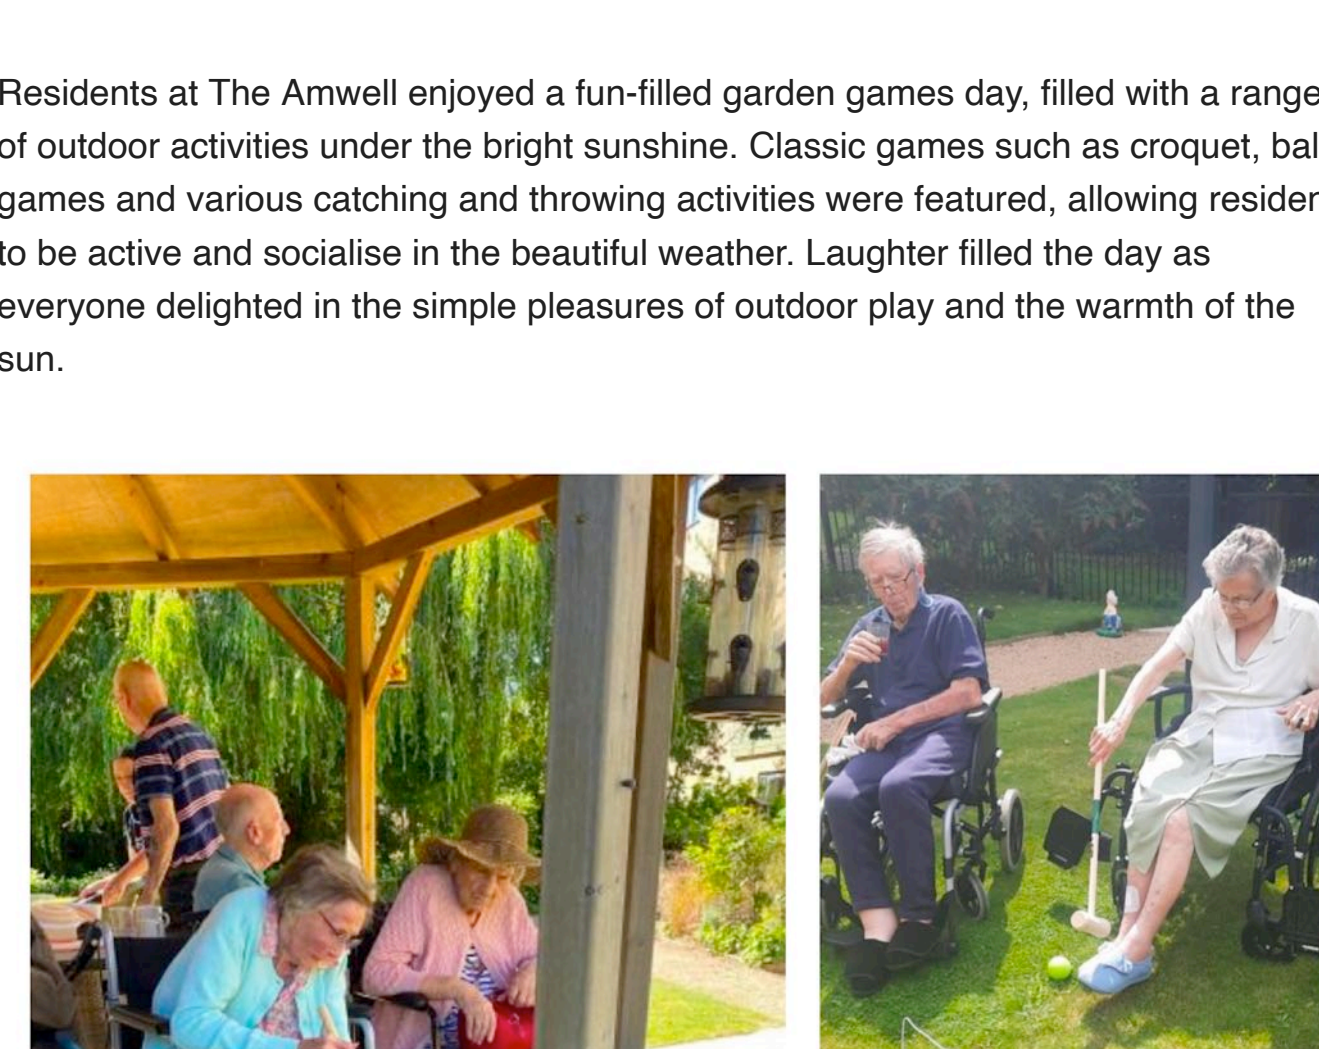

Fun in the Sun

Motion Is Lotion

Residents at The Amwell enjoyed a fun-filled garden games day, filled with a range of outdoor activities under the bright sunshine. Classic games such as croquet, ball games and various catching and throwing activities were featured, allowing residents to be active and socialise in the beautiful weather. Laughter filled the day as everyone delighted in the simple pleasures of outdoor play and the warmth of the sun.
